

First Aid qualifications for Adult Leaders registered with Singapore Scouts Association (wef 1 January 2012)

To ensure the safety of our youth & adult members during Scout activity , it is essential for Adult Leaders in Scouting to equip themselves with updated First Aid knowledge and CPR skills. This is in line with our motto “Be Prepared” in events of emergency or crisis situations and manage the risks involved in Scouting activities.

In line with MOE risk management practice, SSA requires all registered Unit Leaders (including VALs) , those volunteer Adult Leaders & Staff involve in Training and organizing activities directly for our members to have a valid Standard First Aid certificate. The minimum number of hours spent on the Standard First Aid course should not be less than 21 hours with a theoretical examination and practical assessment including CPR and bandaging of wounds.

Adult Leaders currently undergo training for Wood Badge should possess valid First Aid Certificate recognized by National First Aid Council and at the level similar to that of a NROC Level 1 Sports Coach. The following are recommended course providers accredited with National First Aid Council & Ministry of Manpower and will be review by SSA National Training Council periodically.
